

SERIES 189 “BREAKING FREE FROM EVERY ADDICTION” CONFESSIONS
(Scriptures used for these confessions are italicized.)

ROMANS 10:9-13; HEBREWS 7:25; COLOSSIANS 2:10; 2 CORINTHIANS 5:21

Jesus, you are my Lord and I know that God raised you from the dead. Thank you for saving me to the uttermost and for making intercession unto God on my behalf. You have saved me from the shame of _____ addiction, and my salvation is complete; there is nothing lacking in the life that I have received from you. You bore the sin of _____ addiction and I am now the righteousness of God. There is nothing about my life in you, or my salvation, or my righteousness that can be addicted to anything. I am saved from all forms of addiction!

EPHESIANS 2:8-10

Father God, I thank you for honoring my faith and giving to me the gift of salvation out of your grace. I know that none of my works earned me this salvation, and it is by your grace that I am totally saved and delivered from addiction to _____. I am your workmanship, created in Christ Jesus, and your work in me is why I am completely free from _____ addiction. It is your will that I live everyday according to who I am in Christ; therefore, I declare that I live everyday free from _____ addiction.

ROMANS 5:20

Your word makes it clear that _____ addiction is sin. But your grace is greater and more powerful than any addiction; it is because of the abundance of your grace that I live totally free from _____ addiction.

ROMANS 6:6-14; 1 CORINTHIANS 9:27

My old sin nature was crucified with you, Jesus, and the sin of _____ addiction was completely destroyed; I no longer serve that addiction. I am dead to that addiction and totally free from its influence. You died on my behalf and that addiction died with you. Now, I live daily with you and _____ addiction has no control over me. I am dead to that habit and behavior and it has no more control over me. Because of you, Jesus, I am alive unto God. No addiction of any kind reigns in my body.

I never give in to the temptations presented to me by any addiction. I do not yield to the lure of any addiction; but rather, I daily submit to the will of God and live as an example of the righteousness you have made me. I have total control over my body; it is subject unto me and the sin of _____ addiction does not have dominion over me. Because of what you have done in me, I am not under the law of an addiction, but I am under the authority of God's grace.

ROMANS 8:1-2, 6, 10-17

Jesus, I am in you and I no longer walk according to the desires of the flesh. The law of the spirit of life in you has made me free from _____ addiction and it no longer works condemnation in my life. Even my mind is free from the thoughts of _____ addiction, and now my mind is filled with your life and peace.

Jesus, your life is in me and my body is as good as dead when it comes to controlling my life. However, I am alive with your spirit of life and righteousness. The life of God that raised you from the dead is now in me. I am no longer enslaved by _____ addiction to live according to its desires. That addiction no longer works any kind of death in me; and through the power of your life in me I dominate all wrong desires. Father, I am your child and live every day according to the righteousness of your life in me. You have not given me a spirit that can be enslaved or addicted to anything. You have given me your own spirit and I am now your child.

Holy Spirit, I thank you for daily confirming to me that I am literally God's offspring and a joint-heir with Jesus. God, I praise you that my inheritance includes being completely free from _____ addiction.

ROMANS 7:4

Through the body of Christ I am dead to the control of _____ addiction and now my life daily bears fruit that is pleasing unto you, God.

JOHN 17:21-24

I am in Christ and He is in me. I am one with God. Father, I think you for giving to me the same glory that you gave Jesus. I am made perfect in you. I am an example to the world of someone who lives in the love of God and is not hindered by _____ addiction. I praise you for daily giving me a new revelation of your glory and my deliverance.

EPHESIANS 2:1-7

I no longer live in the dead life of _____ addiction and I am no longer deceived by the devils that influenced me into _____ addiction. I do not fulfill the lusts of that addiction and it does not impair the way I think. My nature has changed and I have the life of God.

Father, I thank you for being rich in mercy toward me and for your great love wherewith you love me. By your grace, you have saved me and given me the life of Christ. You have raised me up above _____ addiction and I am now seated with Jesus at your right hand. Every day I live in the exceeding riches of your grace, by which I live free from _____ addiction

PHILIPPIANS 4:13; 1 John 4:13; John 8:36

Jesus, I do all things through your life and anointing in me that strengthens me. It is by that strength that I live every day free from _____ addiction. As you are, so am I in the world. You are not addicted to anything; I am not addicted to anything. You have made me totally, completely 100% free from _____ addiction and I am free indeed!
