October 2018 PROPHETIC WORDS

Dear ,

In this month's letter I am sharing five prophecies which the Lord gave in our church 10 years ago. As you read them, take note of how they have been coming to pass. God is moving and He is doing all He can to prepare His Church for the return of Jesus.

STAND AGAINST EVIL
20080106

In these last days, as you are getting closer to the time of My return, there are many in My Body that are drawing closer to Me. They are conforming to My image and My glory is rising up within them, and it is flowing out of them. There are more and more who are stepping deeper into My presence and becoming more of what I desire, becoming more of what the Father wants.

But at the same time there are those who have given themselves over to the kingdom of darkness. As the light increases, those who have given themselves over to darkness are repelled by it because they have caused their hearts to become black with the evil to which they have committed. There are those who have completely sealed themselves off from Me and they are going to spend eternity in the lake of fire. Those who have hardened themselves to Me are repulsed by the light of My glory coming through those who are drawing closer to Me. Because of that, evil is going to continue to increase just as My glory is going to continue to increase. This is born out in My Word. If you would read the book of Revelation, you would see how that evil is going to increase in an incredible fashion.

However, I have said greater is He that is in you than he that is in the world. As I dwell in you and you dwell in Me, the life that I have given you will become stronger and stronger and stronger. Just like in the book of Revelation, where the two prophets stand up and anything that comes against them is cast down, is stopped, is repelled, the same will be true for those who draw closer to Me and dwell in My presence, for My glory to increase within them. Do not be alarmed by the increase of evil in these last days, for it has been prophesied in My Word. Instead rejoice that you can walk in a greater anointing and in a greater power than the enemy has ever known. For you are My children, and I desire to pour Myself into you, says the Lord.

FALSE AND GENUINE MIRACLES AND WONDERS
20080113-1

I have said in My Word, be not deceived. I have warned you that there would be many would come in My Name. Notice that I said that they would come in My Name. They will declare My Name to you. However, they're walking in deception; they are so deceived that they do not even realize that they're walking in deception. I warned you that there would be accompanying false signs and wonders which would take place in their ministry. Know this, you have entered into the very beginning stages of this taking place in your midst. For there are many voices of deception that are rising up with increasing intensity and they're drifting further and further away from the truth that I've established in My Word. In many cases, some of them are having false signs and wonders manifest in their services. All of this is a work of the enemy to bring about a deception to try and draw people away from Me and to him. Because of this deception people do not realize what is happening.

I would say to you this day, you have also entered into the beginning stages of a mighty wave of My signs and wonders and demonstration of power. For you have read the book of Acts and you have wondered, where are those miracles in these days. I say unto you, that I have servants who have stayed true to the call. My power is going to begin to be released through them. Like the roar of a mighty lion, there will be demonstrations of the glorious power of Almighty God. Just as in the Old Testament there were confrontations between My prophets and the prophets of Baal, in these days there are going to be confrontations between My prophets and the false prophets that are working to deceive many. You are going to see a day of judgment rise up in this world unlike anything that you have seen. For I am preparing My church to be a church without spot and without blemish, for My return is soon, says the Lord.

SPIRITUAL VOLCANO 20080126

I have said in My Word that I anointed My Son with the Holy Ghost and with power, that He went about doing good, healing all that were oppressed of the devil. He did that because the anointing that He been given, the anointing that was working on the inside of Him, was released outside of him to bring about the change, to bring about the deliverance, to bring about the healing. Over the years, the centuries, your enemy has worked very hard to keep My body, My Church, from flowing in this kind of anointing and power.

Over the last 25 years there's been an increase in those who are turning to those times fellowship with the Holy Spirit. My Son said that you would receive power after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you. There are many who have received this infilling of the Holy Spirit. However, they have not allowed that anointing which abides within to begin to flow without. But over the last 25 years, there's been an increase an incredible increase, in the number of those in My body who have chosen to give themselves over to the One who administers this anointing in them. As they have spent time allowing that anointing within to grow, to develop, and to increase, they have been releasing that anointing through their prayers as they pray in the Spirit. For you see, when the Holy Spirit gives to you that prayer language of tongues and you exercise it, you must understand that, even though your mind and comprehension is unfruitful, the words that are crossing your lips are anointed with power. The words that are crossing your lips are anointed from My very throne. For there is nothing that the Holy Spirit does in you that is not anointed.

Over the last 25 years, more and more and more of My children have become acquainted with the Holy Spirit and they have begun to move in this direction of being used by the Holy Spirit. As they have chosen to pray in tongues, the anointing that abides within has begun to increase within. But it is also been released from without through these prayers.

And now let me tell you what is happening. In the realm of the natural you know what happens when a volcano explodes; there is pressure on the inside of that volcano and that pressure builds up as the earth within releases this incredible power, this incredible heat. Liquid rock builds up on the inside of that volcano and it continues to build and continues to build and eventually that volcano begins to bulge and it begins to stretch. Then the day comes when there is an explosion that is unparalleled. Even in the darkest night, the result of that explosion can be seen from miles and miles and miles as the glory of the Earth is released through that natural volcano.

I tell you this night, because so many of My children in this world have continued to pray in the Spirit, to pray in that glorious anointed language that I have given to them through the Holy Spirit, that there is an anointing that is building up in the realm of the spirit in your world. The forces of darkness have been holding it back and holding it back is much as possible, but it is growing and it is increasing, and that which has been holding it back is beginning to shake, is beginning to rumble, is beginning to bulge, it is beginning to move. The day is quickly approaching to where there is going to be a volcanic explosion of My glory and anointing in this world to bring about this last day revival.

The enemy sees it. This is why he is fighting so hard on so many fronts to bring about increased confusion, increased deception. But I say to you this night, if you will not stop, if you will continue to do this - I speak to My Body, not just to those in this room this night - if you will continue to do this and continue to allow the anointing that abides within to continue to increase, if you will continue to release it into the atmosphere of your world, it is going to continue to build up and that pressure is going to continue to build and the powers of darkness are going to be driven back and an anointing is going to be released to change this world. There is going to be a massive harvest of souls into My Kingdom. So know this night, do not stop, do not stop, for I am pouring through you a greater anointing that is going to surpass what was seen when the Church was started in the book of Acts. I am moving, says the Lord.

WAVES OF JUDGMENT 20080127-3

I am coming with a judgment that My Church has not anticipated. I am releasing a wave of My glory that is not going to produce signs and wonders and miracles, but it is a wave of My glory that is going to be judgment in My house. My Son said that those who heard His Word and built their house on it - their lives - applied it, will be like the person who built his house upon a rock. When the storms come the house will stand. He also said that those who hear His Word and do not apply it, do not apply His teachings, the things that He has spoken, will be like the person who built his house upon the sand; when the storms come, that house crumbles.

Think about His Words. Think about what he said. For both houses were built, both houses stood and both houses looked stable and strong. But it was not until the storm came that the weakness of the one was revealed. Those who had chosen to live in the house that was built upon the sand saw the place that they had chosen for safety and security crumble at their feet.

That is what is happening now in My Church.. There are many who have taken the Word of My Son when He said you must be born again, they have applied it and they have taught it, but beyond that, there is not much truth that they have used to build their house. There are many, many people dwelling in these houses that are built upon this sand. Then there are those who have taken My Son's Words, the truth that I have revealed in My Word, and they have built their house with that; it stands upon a foundation that is strong, it stands upon a foundation that will support and will not give way.

The first waves of the storm have hit the shores. This is why over the last two years you have seen ministries begin to shake and tremble and crumble. There is a greater wave that is coming.

For you see, in the natural when a mighty storm blows up at sea, smaller waves crash against the shore before the massive waves. What you have witnessed over the last two years have been the smaller waves that are incapable of bringing about the mass destruction that a large wave will bring. The large wave is on its way. There are more, smaller waves that are going to hit. There are more ministries that are going to begin to crumble, they are going to begin to shake, they are going to begin to tremble, and it is because they built their house, their ministry, their churches upon that which cannot support what I desire. All those who have latched on to those ministries and latched on to those churches, they are going to begin to see things crumble around them, they are going to begin to see this shaking, this trembling this crumbling.

There is a mighty wave coming. That wave is going to crash against both houses. The houses that are built upon the sand are going to be devastated and many who have lived in those houses are going to look to the right to the left trying to find a place of refuge, because everything they trusted in is no longer there. But as this wave, this storm, crashes against the houses that are built upon the rock, those houses are going to stand and whatever impurities remain on the outside of those houses will be washed away by this wave. What will remain is going to be a house that is gleaming with My glory. There are many who are going to run to seek refuge in those houses of glory that remain standing. Others are going to be so foolish and so choosing to remain to see, that they're going to try to rebuild that which has crumbled, but it will never fully be rebuilt.

Now hear Me: There are those who are going to hear these words, you are living in a house that is built on sand it cannot support you when this storm comes. It cannot support you when the adversity of tribulation comes. I speak this to you tonight to warn you ahead of time, to tell you to evaluate that which you are trusting, evaluate the house wherein you are living. Seek Me, allow Me to take you into a house that is destined to glow with My glory. Forget about whether or not it reminds you of the house you used to live in. Forget about whether or not it follows the pattern of the house you used to live in, for the pattern of the former has not sustained the fullness of what I have tried to do and it never will. Do not be deceived by what you see on the outside, but embrace that which I will show you exists on the inside. Let Me take you to the place where you need to live; it will be a place of shelter, it will be a place of safety, it will be a place where in I will be able to gather you under My wings and protect you from the heat of the day.

There are so many in My Church, who do not understand the anger that I have for the houses that have misled those in My Church. There are those in My Body who simply do not comprehend the standards that I have established in My Word. I say to you this night, I will not be gentle in judgment, for has not My Word said, that I will try you and your works with fire when you spend before Me? If you intend to live the remaining years of your life on this planet in the place of My glory and in the place of My will, you absolutely must let Me take you by the hand and lead you where you should go.

I say this because I love you, and because I want you to know what is coming, for have I not said in My Word that I do nothing unless I first reveal it through My prophets? I am revealing to you this night that there is a great storm, a great wave of judgment headed for My Church. Leave the houses of sand now and run to the houses built on the rock, the rock of My truth, the rock of My presence, the rock of My glory, the rock of My Son and His Words. Dwell there and dwell in safety and you will experience Me in a way that you've never known. I will touch you with My glory in such a way that your life will be changed forever, says the Lord.

I have said in My Word, that they that seek Me will find Me. I have said that if you diligently seek Me, you will find Me and will know Me. If you will do this, even this day, at this time in your life, if you will diligently seek Me, I will give you a revelation of who My Son is to you. I will give you a revelation of who the Holy Spirit is to you. I will give you a revelation of who I am to you as your Father. I will help you understand what it means to be My child. But you must diligently seek Me. Too many of My children are diligently seeking their denomination or their pastor or what their church has to say. But I tell you, diligently seek Me and I will reveal to you those things that you need to know concerning your relationship with Me. Along with this, you begin to experience what I have said in My Word is joy unspeakable and full of glory.

Each of the above prophecies are even now being fulfilled. Their fulfillment will continue until the last trump and Christians are called up to be with the Lord. As Christians, we need to think long and hard about our walk with God. We need to take seriously His instruction to be holy. The more we receive a deeper revelation of God, the more we will understand why it is so critical that we live according to God's standards as revealed in His Word. Jesus is coming back...let's be ready for His glorious return!
