

CAN YOU DISCERN THE VOICES?

August 2, 2020

There are many, many voices in the world right now. Voices of the media. Voices of entertainment figures. Voices of politicians. Voices of the rebellious. Voices of My children who are so distant from Me they do not have what I would call “good spiritual common sense.”

But then you have voices of truth. My question to you is this: Can you discern the difference? Do you really know what you’re listening to? Do you really understand what you’re allowing to be sown into your life? For you see, there is so much confusion in the world right now, more so than ever before. This is not new, in that, it is not surprising; for this is something that was prophesied.

What you must understand is that there are so many people in the world who have been turned over to a reprobate mind and they are NOT going to change. You need to understand this, and you need to realize that you will be held accountable for who you allow to speak into your life.

I say unto you, you must put Me first and you must seek Me. Have I not identified the Holy Spirit as being the Spirit of truth? If you do not spend time fellowshiping with the Spirit of truth, then you’re opening yourself up to the influence of the spirit of deception. This is precisely what has happened to so many of those in the Church.

But I say to you, if you will seek Me with all your heart, you WILL find Me; and if you will fellowship with the Holy Spirit, He will minister to you out of truth and bring correction in your life concerning things that you have accepted that you should never have allowed into your life.

There is not much time left. You have entered into the beginning stages of what My Son called “the beginning of sorrows.” Some things will get better; others will not.

I say unto you, make a decision this day. Will you seek Me, or will you continue to walk a broad path of confusion, of misleading information and of destruction? I’m here for you. I’ve never left you. I’m here for you and I will always respond when you seek Me. So again I say, seek Me with all your heart. You’ll find Me. That is a promise I have given you in My Word and you will walk deeper into the truth of who I am and the reality of who you are in Me.

HOW TO GO DEEPER INTO GOD

August 2, 2020

You’ve heard Me say to come deeper into My presence, come deeper into Me, and some wonder, “Exactly what does that mean? How do I go deeper into God?” It’s not complicated. What it means is you must lay aside more and more of all the peripheral things that you desire in life and allow Me to take a place of authority and dominance.

As it’s written in My Word, you must decrease, and I must increase. That is precisely what this means. The more of the things of this world that you lay aside for the purpose of spending time with Me, that is going deeper into Me. The more that you stay focused on Me, that is going deeper into Me. The more that you set your affections on things above and not on things here below, that is going deeper into Me.

It is not difficult. It is something that you can do. But it's something you must make the decision to do. So I encourage you again, come deeper into Me and experience a greater fulness of your salvation.
