

LIES KEEP YOU IN BONDAGE

April 26, 2020

Many of My children are struggling during this time, feeling as though they have no freedom, have no liberty. But I would have you know that those of you who are feeling this way, you are succumbing to a lie of the enemy.

I want you to think about My servants. Remember how they were locked up in prison? It was just the two of them. And they began to praise Me, they began to worship Me and what happened? My power was unleashed in that place. They sensed it. They knew it. They experienced it, but so did everyone around them.

I want you to know that if you will shake off the lies of the enemy telling you how much you're missing out on, and start praising Me where you are, you'll experience what you have been missing out on, and that is a greater level of My glory and My presence.

The enemy has been lying to you. My Son said that He had come to set the captives free. You've been set free from the power of the sin nature. You are living in freedom, but you must see yourself as living in that kind of freedom.

I say unto you, do not complain about the current circumstances. Rejoice in that you know a God who is bringing an answer and a solution. Rejoice that your names are written in My book of life. Rejoice in knowing that I will never leave you and I will never forsake you. Rejoice in knowing that wherever you are, I am with you.

Do not let the present circumstances become a distraction in your life. Turn this into something good for you. Redeem the time, for the days are short. I am with you, says the Lord.
