

GOD IS BLOWING THE TRUMPET

May 3, 2020

You have just sung for Me to blow the trumpet in Zion for I am God. I want you to know that I am blowing the trumpet. In the natural, an army recognizes the various sounds of the trumpet that are blown. Sometimes the trumpet sounds the charge. Sometimes it sounds the retreat. But it sounds a different sound for each declaration of the commander.

I want you to know that I am blowing the trumpet in My Church. I am blowing the trumpet in My Church, for I have made the voices of My servants to be as trumpets unto Me. Those who are serving Me with their heart, those who are committed unto Me, those who stand in the pulpits of churches – I have made their voices trumpets. They are sounding the trumpet call of repentance. They are sounding the trumpet call of holiness. They are sounding the trumpet call to the closet of prayer, to the times of fasting, to the times of worship. They are sounding the trumpet call to My Word.

Yes, I am blowing the trumpet in Zion. For those who are submitted unto Me, they will hear the trumpet call and they will yield and they will obey and they will do what they are hearing. For I am calling you unto Me. I am calling you to a place in Me that is deeper than any place you've ever been before, because I am preparing My Church for a great move of My Spirit. Many will be left out. Many will not be a part of this. In fact, there are some, in many churches, who will be totally oblivious to what is happening. But yet, I am preparing a great move and you must prepare yourself for Me to move through you.

So, hear the trumpet call. Yield to the sound of the trumpet. Yield to those things that I am calling you to. For I am preparing to move, and I will move in every single vessel that is ready for Me, says the Lord.
