

GOD'S CHURCH MUST WORSHIP November 15, 2020

I say unto you, you are My church. Those of you who have accepted My Son as your Lord and Savior – you are My church. I dwell in you and with you. You are My church. You are My tabernacle. You are My temple. You are My dwelling place, and I fellowship with you in the realm of the spirit.

When you worship Me, you are accomplishing far more than you understand. In this particular church you have heard so much about praise and worship, more than what most churches have heard. And yet, there is still so much more for you to know, to learn, and to understand.

Some of you have heard these words, these prophecies, these teachings and you have accepted them as good teachings, as good exhortations and encouragements. But I want you to know, it is critical for you to live what you have heard, to put into practice those things that I have declared.

I have ordained praise and worship. I have ordained it and when you enter into it with all of your heart, with all of your mind, your soul, then you are entering into that which I have anointed, and the anointing of praise and worship will be activated in your life.

You do not yet fully understand the power that is in praise and worship. But you are learning. And if you will continue to praise Me and worship Me, and not just hear these words as simple encouragement to sing during a church service, but receive these words as instructions, instructions from Me concerning your relationship with Me – if you will do this, then you will come to the place of understanding more clearly the power of praise and worship and what it does for you when you are doing it and how it assures victory in your life.

So take these words to heart. Do not dismiss them. Receive them, apply them and experience the fullness of what praise and worship can do in your life, says the Lord.
