1 Samuel 8 The people wanted a king, which was in opposition to God's Word. Samuel warned them what would happen and all the evil the king would bring upon them. The people ignored the warning because they did not believe the voice of God's prophet.

1 Samuel 9 & 10 Saul was Israel's first king. The people wanted to be ruled by man, not God. They rejected God's plan in favor of what they thought a king could give them.

1 Samuel 13 & 15 Saul decided he knew better than God, even though he professed to know God. Under his leadership there was financial upheaval and a weakened military (13:19-23) and increased military conflict.

1 Samuel 16 God revealed to Samuel the day was coming when someone who would do what was right would sit on the throne of Israel.

1 Samuel 17-19 The people become more aware of David.

1 Samuel 16-30 There was great conflict between Saul, a person who professed to trust God, and David, a person who sought after God. Saul made it impossible for David to live a normal life and even persecuted him.

1 Samuel 31 Saul's reign ends.

2 Samuel 2 David is finally recognized as king during a ceremony in Judah. However, Abner, Saul's army captain, took Ish-bosheth, Saul's son, and made him king over Gilead, the Ashurites, Jezreel, Ephraim, Benjamin and the rest of Israel.

2 Samuel 2-4 There is great conflict between those following David and those aligned with Ish-Bosheth. But notice in 2 Samuel 3:1 the house of David continually gained strength, even though those following David appear outnumbered.

2 Samuel 5 The nation of Israel is reunited under David.

THE PROPHECY

The spirit of Saul has reigned over this nation for 8 years. People in this country, particularly many who profess to be Christians and committed to serving God, decided they no longer wanted His Word to be their standard. Instead, they wanted a king they thought would give them what they believed was fair and to their benefit. What they were actually seeking was someone who would accommodate their falling prey to the deceitfulness of riches and the fulfilling the various lusts of the flesh.

The leader they chose publicly professed his belief in and relationship with God, but his actions have revealed essentially no respect for God and His Word. An attitude of arrogance toward God and a denial of doing anything wrong has become more and more apparent. Under the leadership of this "Saul" there has been financial upheaval, a weakened military and increased military conflict.

There has also been great conflict between the spirit of Saul and David, those who seek after God. More and more legitimate religious freedoms have been removed or greatly restricted. Christians have found it increasingly difficult to publicly live their Christianity without persecution. Some Christians have faced unemployment and some faced legal prosecution, all because of their beliefs.

While this was happening, God knew someone else would rise up and unseat the spirit of Saul. This person had already been gaining more and more public recognition as a no-nonsense individual. (Donald Trump hosted "The Apprentice" from 2004 until he announced his candidacy for president on June 16, 2015.)

The spirit of Saul has been unseated. Though Donald Trump is not another "David" (in the literal sense), his positions and openness to receive godly counsel reveal someone who understands the decline of this nation; someone whose moral character is greatly aligned with the standards of scripture.

However, the spirit of Abner and the spirit Ish-bosheth are even now very active to refuse to acknowledge Donald Trump as the next president. Already protests, fires and flag burnings have taken place in many cities, some of which are Berkeley, Pittsburgh, Oakland, Seattle, San Jose, Washington DC and Portland, let alone the protests which have taken place on high school and college campuses. (It's interesting how liberals want to be taken seriously, yet so many of them act like immature, spoiled, bratty children in adult bodies. This is such a contrast to the way conservatives responded when Barack Obama was first elected, then re-elected.)

You must pray now and continually for the safety of Donald Trump and his family. The enemy believed he had this election in his hands. He is furious beyond measure at the outcome (remember, he is not omniscient and does not know the beginning from the end). If he can, he will stop Donald Trump from taking the oath of office. I tell you, pray for Donald Trump's safety, his health and the safety of his family. Do not forget to pray for Mike Pence in the same fashion, for he is a child of Mine and is positioned to sit in the seat of the presidency.

The power of My Word and My life in Christians can help to suppress and stop the spirit of Abner and the spirit Ish-bosheth. You will not need to protest, you will simply need to press deeper into Me. As you do, My glory released through you will increasingly blind the camps of Abner and Ish-bosheth. You will never perfect your nation; but through you, I can bring about a level of stability. Remember, My Word, My Glory, My Life and My Presence are the answers you need for every problem in your nation.

There is another aspect of this election I hope you have noticed. Many of you have believed that certain politicians are very conservative in their convictions. But I have exposed what is truly in their hearts. Many of them had a chance to align themselves with someone who was willing to take on and defeat the spirit of Saul, liberalism, an anti-Christ spirit, perversions and the murder of the unborn, yet they refused. In doing so, they revealed that they are more concerned with social protocol and their own political identity. Those who did this are double-minded and unstable. They refused to use the influence of their position to try and unite your nation against the powers of darkness. They were willing to allow the spirit of Saul to continue to reign.

Do you remember I told you after the last election that a horde demons was positioned off your coast line and that the election results released that demonic army to invade the United States? Do you remember that one month after the election, the first of many mass murders took place at Sandy Hook elementary school? Your prayers during the season of this most recent election have inflicted heavy damage and heavy loss to that demonic army. The battle is not over, you must continue to humble yourselves before Me and pray. You must continue on the path of My presence. If you do, you will prevent many more deaths.

Many are saying I have given the United States more time to repent and seek My face. However, I am not the one who changed; I have always been ready to move in your country. You are the ones who changed the course of your nation. You are the ones who prayed. You are the ones who voted. Do not think all is well and all has been settled. Your enemy will not give up, and neither should you. Do not become comfortable. Continue fighting in the spirit. Do not allow the enemy to rise again in greater influence. Keep fighting until I return, for I desire to find you fighting the good fight of faith.
