YOUR WORSHIP IS CRUCIAL FEBRUARY 23, 2008

You've given Me what I have needed this night. For as you worshiped Me I was able to release into you My glory and that glory passed through you into this place. In the realm of the spirit, through your worship tonight you have inflicted damage in the camp of the enemy. Through your worship it is as though My glory was launched out of you and exploded into the camp of the enemy and now there is great confusion and there is great disarray.

The enemy is trying to recover from this. Devils have been fleeing as a result. You have had a great impact in the camp of the enemy tonight, but the camp has not been dislodged. The enemy intends to try and rebuild and prepare for a counterattack, for the enemy was encamped planning an attack anyway.

I say to you that you absolutely must make this a habit in this church. I want to use this church to bring about revival in this region. I want to move in your midst. But if you allow yourselves to become lazy and apathetic towards your worship, you will hinder My ability to work through you. Many churches have done this. In some cases, they stopped and drifted off right at the point of a breakthrough.

I say to you this night, you have heard My instruction. You have seen in My Word, what I expect of you as My priests. You are to continue to offer up the sacrifice of praise, to release this worship from your heart. I cannot force you to do this. You must choose to do it.

I will tell you now, that in the days and weeks to come, there will be times when you will come in this place and you will not feel like worshiping. You will bring burdens with you; burdens from your home life, your jobs, and other things. Your emotions will cry out that they just don't want to worship today. But you must press through this.

Hear Me this night. You must do this, whether you feel like it or not, whether you are motivated outwardly or not. This is something that you absolutely must do. Again, I tell you it is absolutely critical that you do this.

If you will make it a determination in your heart to worship Me, regardless of your feelings, to worship Me and praise Me – not just with your worship team as the words are on the screen, but also in the free worship, worshipping Me with the understanding and in the spirit – if you will do this, you will enable Me to pour more of My glory through you to continually inflict damage to the camp of the enemy.

But if you don't do this, some of you are going to come under attack from the enemy. These attacks will be of a various nature. But I'm telling you now that these attacks can be stopped before they are even launched. You must worship Me.

As I have said in My Word do not become weary in well doing. This includes worshipping Me. Learn to worship Me, not just when you are here, but also away from here. As you have seen tonight, you can use a divinely inspired song of worship to help usher you into a time of deeper praise and worship unto Me.

This church has come to a place in Me through praise and worship that most churches have never done. Yet there is a deeper place in this praise and worship that I desire you to attain. I am calling you to this place. I am calling you to this deeper place. You must keep your eyes off of those around you. You must keep your eyes off of the ones who are and are not here. You must keep your eyes on Me. Yes, I am your Father, but I'm also your God. Do not lose this perspective. Worship Me for who I am. I am love. I am your Redeemer. I am your life. I am your joy. I am your everything.

In the days to come, from this point on, I give to you this mandate to worship Me like you never have before. I long to add others to your praise team and do not be surprised if over time your praise team experiences transition. For I want to lead your praise team into greater levels of worship with Me, for they are appointed in this place as leaders. And I will be dealing with them collectively and individually.

For those who will not praise Me and enter in with their heart, I will not be pleased. But I say to you, to those who are not on the praise team, it is not up to them to lead you into worship. You must join them in worshipping. And if they will not lead, then you step up where you are in your seat in this sanctuary and you lead.

I want you to see yourself as a worship leader in Heaven with the throngs of millions following your lead. I want you to see yourself standing before My throne and leading all of the angels and all of the saints in praise and worship unto Me. I want you to see yourself in that position, to understand the value and importance of your worship as an individual. Collectively, I want you as a congregation to worship Me out of the depths of your heart.

If there are those around you who will not worship, do not let them hold you back. There are those who have been in this place who have felt uncomfortable during your worship. The reason for this is because I am dealing with them in their hearts about their lack of worship. I'm going to continue to do that as long as they do not sear the conscience to Me.

So again I say, worship Me. Let tonight be for each of you a launching point into a greater realm of praise and worship that will take you, not just as individuals, but as a congregation into much greater and deeper levels of My glory and My presence. If you want to see the revival take place that I desire, your worship is a key.

I speak to you as My priests and I say, obey My Word. Every time you come together, offer up the sacrifices of your praise and your worship and I will continually increase the level of My glory in My presence in this place.

HEALING PRESENCE IN WORSHIP MARCH 16, 2003-1

It is in an atmosphere of worship - worship that is coming from your heart, from the very depths of your spirit – it is in that atmosphere that I am able to work and do great and mighty things. Healings manifest in this atmosphere.

Many have wondered why it is that the healing evangelist back in the forties and the fifties had so many miracles and so many healings. It wasn't only that they trusted Me, but there was a pattern among many of them that during the times of worship, they would exalt Me and lead the people to exalt Me in a very powerful and unique way. It was during those times of worship that I would begin to move. Many of them would have a special team of singers or musicians - and, in some cases, just one musician to play worship music in the background - and then that healing evangelist would begin to minister.

It was in that atmosphere that had been set that I was able to move more freely. For those of you who are expecting to see Me move in a mighty, mighty way, I would say to you, do not dismiss this valuable tool that I have given to you called worship. So many churches have laid this aside and so many churches have degraded to just singing songs but not truly worshipping.

But I say to you, if you will worship Me, worship Me out of the depths of your spirit, you will see Me move. For it is out of the depths of your spirit that worship flows and will create an atmosphere for My glory to touch each person in this place.
