RECEIVE BY FAITH
February 12, 2006

When you worship Me, it isn't like you are moving Me to do something on your behalf. It isn't like you have to move Me to do anything for you, because I am willing and always want to minister to you. What happens when you worship Me is that you move yourself into a place in the realm of the spirit where you can receive what I have already done for you, what has already been accomplished by My Son Jesus. He's already made the way, He's already provided your healing He has already provided your deliverance, everything you need has already been done.

When you worship Me, you move yourself into the place where you can receive what I have already done for you. So just lift your hearts unto Me and receive what I have done for you already. Oh, My children, I love you so; I love you like you can't even imagine and I want so much to minister to your every need, to your every need.

I am willing, I am willing. You must receive what I have given you already. You must touch Me with your faith. Have I not said in My Word that without faith it is impossible to please Me? It's your faith that touches Me – it is your faith that touches Me, and it is your faith that releases unto you what I have already provided. I love you; just receive what you need from Me today. I am the source of all that you need – just receive it, just receive it.

WORSHIP OPENS DOORS
December 6, 2006

Through your worship, you create a habitation for My presence. Through your worship, you open up a dimension of the Spirit wherein My glory is released. Through your worship, you open up the door for miracles. Through your worship, you open up the door for Me to take up a seat in your presence, to dwell in your midst, to touch you with My compassion and My grace. Through your worship, you enter into the divine; for a heart that pours out its love and affection to Me is a heart with which I fellowship.

PLEASED WITH WORSHIP
December 9, 2006

For you have pleased Me this night. Yes, I did arise to My rest; and your worship, it filled the place where I reside. And I want you to know that you have pleased Me this night.

But I will tell you what happened during your time of worship to Me. For this night, as you began to praise Me and you began to worship Me, in the realm of the Spirit you released cleansing waters. For you see, during your praise and worship you were interceding on behalf of many people. And as you were worshipping and as you were praising during that intercession, it was as though you were releasing cleansing waters and those waters began to wash throughout this place. And they began to cleanse things, to remove things; to wash things away that needed to be removed.

For you see, there are many people who have brought problems into this place. But instead of giving them to Me they have left them here and it has created for some people an atmosphere that has interfered with their ability to receive from Me. But tonight you have washed these things away, there has been a cleansing in this place through your worship.

I would have you know that in the days to come you should spend other times like this worshipping Me because more things in the spirit are going to take place when you do. You see, many churches have missed the importance and the need for balance. They assume the word 'balance' only applies to the Word, to doctrine. But I would have you know that it applies to everything that you do.

There needs to be a balance of teaching, there needs to be a balance of worship, there needs to be a balance of ministry; all these things need to be balanced. And in too many of My churches there is a severe imbalance in the area of worship in that there is a lack of praise and worship.

But I would have you know that you have done well this night and you have pleased Me and you have also released in the realm of the Spirit an anointing that I had deposited into many of you. For those of you that have been seeking Me, My anointing has been released into you as you have been worshipping. It is out of your worship that an anointing has been released in this place.

And I would say in the days to come, remember this because there is an anointing that is released as you praise Me and as you worship Me. For as I deposit into you, you then release in part through your praise and through your worship. So take this as an encouragement this night; an encouragement to know that these times of praise and worship are not just about singing songs, but it is about releasing out of your heart those things which you have received from Me.

So, good things have happened this night, good things have happened this night, and I want to thank you for setting aside this time to worship Me. I want to thank you for coming to worship Me. For you see, as much as you have enjoyed being in My presence, I have enjoyed being in yours. So I have blessed you this night, I have extended My hand upon you this night, and My blessings are upon you and I want you to know there is more to come.

You are on the threshold of greatness in the realm of the Spirit. Keep doing what you are doing, keep doing what you know to do and you're going to experience one breakthrough after another, one level of glory after another. For you see, I dwell in this place and I do enjoy these times of fellowship that we have together, says the Lord.
