Bethlehem-Judah (house of bread & praise). (Gen 18 & 19) Moab was a son of incest; a product of corruption; an illegitimate child.

For years there has been a growing famine of the true bread of God's Word and genuine praise. Along with this, Christians have been leaving the houses of true bread and praise (the fullness of God's truth and His true presence) and going where the gold of God's glory has been replaced with the polish brass of man's religious contrivances. They are going to Moab, a place where the works of the flesh have been joined to the intent and purpose of God with the result being an illegitimate church where strange fire is kindled and the table of the Lord is set with a mixture of dung, vomit and moldy bread. It's a church where modern scribes and Pharisees lead people to Jesus then feed them from the corrupted table, all the while telling them they are being nourished into the presence of God.

But in the midst of all the Nabads, Abihus, Rehoboams and Elis, a generation of Samuels is being raised up who will declare the Word of the Lord without compromise. Though many of them have sat in the house of Eli, they are coming out - and yes, many have already come out - for they have heard My voice and said, "Here am I." They are purging themselves of error that was sown into their hearts. Through the power of My Word and the Holy Spirit, they are cleansing themselves of all filthiness of the spirit.

These Samuels are rooted and grounded in Me. Their feet are planted firmly on the rock of My truth. They will travel and preach My Word. They will shepherd My churches with the rod and the staff of My Word. They will not be friends of the world, for they will be the friends of God. They will be iron sharpening the iron of others who seek My face. When they speak, the fire of My truth and holiness will come from their lips. They will offend many, many in My church who are on the path that leads away from Me, ultimately, away from Me for all eternity.

Through their words, there will be a great awakening in a many, many Believers who have been settling for vomit, dung and moldy bread. These Christians will realize they have been led astray. They will no longer be enamored with the Hollywood glitz that has fill so many of My churches like a cancerous tumor. They will no longer be captivated by outward demonstrations, but will hunger for the truth their starving spirits have been craving.

Though the enemy has come in like a flood, the greatest flood has yet to be released, a flood of My glory, My truth, My presence, My holiness and My grace. You must prepare yourself for what is coming. Search and examine your heart: is there bitterness, is there unforgiveness, is there pride? You must, and again I say MUST purge yourself of these things and all else that is a spot or blemish in your life. Humble yourself before Me, for My desire is to use you - yes, every single one of you hearing this - as vessels of My glory and power. Humble yourselves, and I WILL lift you up with My glory.
