

UNDERSTANDING HOW TO RECEIVE 210725

It is My joy to be your God, your Master, your Savior, your Healer, your Deliverer, your Father. The more you learn how to see Me as all of these things to you, is the more you're going to understand how to receive from Me. I am everything for you. I am God. I created this entire universe. You need to understand that if I can do that, there is nothing in your life that I cannot address and fix. All you need to do is trust Me, and therein lies the problem.

Too many of My children say they trust Me, but they tend to trust themselves more. Trusting Me is a learning process because it means you're trusting someone you've never seen. But I will reveal Myself to you in such a way that you'll understand better and better on how to trust Me. Remember, I am a Spirit and that is how I relate to you. Stop focusing so much on the natural that you miss the perspective of the spiritual. Focus on Me and learn to trust Me and you will see Me move in every area of life, says the Lord.
