

Where are you oh women of Jerusalem? Where are you mothers in Israel? Where are My handmaidens, says the Lord? For My eyes are searching to and fro throughout the earth, looking for those who have a heart towards Me, looking for those who have an ear on the door post of My heart! Can I find even one?

Where are My wise virgins? Where is My army of lionesses? For just as the women of darkness are being groomed and rising to power to bring forth a demonic agenda, so must My women of light begin to rise up in the name of Jesus of Nazareth and declare My truth, says the Lord! For did I not say that as the darkness get darker that the light would get lighter?

Where are you, daughters of the light? For as gross darkness and abominations are being spewn from the mouths of the seductresses in these last days, so must I have My words of truth being brought forth from My mouth in the earth! So must I have women bold and undeceivable to stand up with the sword of the word of truth in their mouths declaring what is truly evil and what is good! For My name is faithful and true and I am coming back with a sword in My mouth and I will smite the army of darkness with My words!

For I am the Lord Sabaoth and I will make My truth known in the earth! For I am the Lord of the armies of heaven and I will lead My army to battle, and defeat the darkness in that great and terrible day. Warn the people! Warn the people! Warn the people, that those who would have ears to hear would begin to proclaim the coming of the one true King!

Declare My truth louder than ever, says the Lord, that My glory might rest upon you as I bring you before kings and kingdoms that everyone would know the time and season in which they are living! For just as I brought Joseph to a place of importance and just as I brought Daniel and Esther forth, so will I bring My voices to a place of prominence that the nations might be warned with My truth, that they might prepare the people! For the dividing line is coming and now is, says the Lord.

Gather your voices together as one and declare the works of the Lord! Let no corrupt communication come from your mouth that they may find no fault in you except for that which they persecute you for! For better is it to be persecuted for righteousness than for wrongdoing, says the Lord. For I said the thief has come, but he has nothing in me! So must it be for My army, My peculiar people; My pure and spotless bride!

But fear not, for that great and terrible day is coming quickly and My hand will be upon My army as I go before you, just as it was prophesied in the book of Joel. For as you go forth in boldness, so shall you shall see the last and final harvest gathered by your hands, says the Lord! But I need My people to take their places, including My daughters of Zion. I need My women to rise up! For just as I used women to bring forth My will in the earth throughout the generations, how much more now will I use My women in these last days? For I am declaring to My women, come!

Come forth quickly! Come out from among them, says the Lord! Come from the north, the south, the east and the west! Let them begin to gather and call life to the desolate places. Let them awaken to the wedding bells. Let them awaken with fearlessness and tears in their eyes. Let them awaken with swords in their mouths and with the anointing oil of My presence, that the world might know that they have been with the King of kings as they begin breaking the alabaster boxes at My feet all over the earth, that it would be done unto them, according to My word, once more says the Lord! Those who have ears to hear; let her hear what the Spirit of the Lord is saying!
