

WORDS FOR MEDITATION (17)

Romans 8:13; Galatians 5:16-17 As you press deeper into God, your flesh will seem to take on the persona of a heavily-armed enemy warrior who refuses to relinquish any ground.

Psalm 18:37-40 In spiritual warfare, do you persist until you see victory? If you start seeing a breakthrough, do not stop. It means the enemy is retreating and loosening his grip. You have to keep fighting to seal the victory. Most Christians are looking for relief from the attack, the problem and the associated emotions when they should be looking for complete victory.

Luke 14:25-27, 33 Until Jesus sits on the throne of your life you will not be able to do this.

Matthew 8:14-17 Jesus did not heal people to draw crowds; but He healed people in the crowds. Jesus did nothing to be sensational; but what He did was sensational. What is your true motivation for wanting My power operating in and through your life?

Matthew 18:19-20 Christians talk about the prayer of agreement and the need to find a prayer partner to agree with them in prayer in order to get things accomplished. But who do you think is more valuable to have in agreement with you: a fellow Believer or Jesus? Do you not understand that when you pray according to scripture, you are entering into agreement with Jesus in your prayers? Who on Earth could Jesus have found to stand in agreement with Him in prayer? When Jesus prayed and spoke, He was in agreement with the Father. 1 John 5:14-15

Revelation 4:8 Just imagine being in the presence of God where His perfection and holiness and glory and beauty and love are so powerful and so overwhelming that no matter what you want to do, the only thing that would come out of the deepest regions of your heart is, "Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty." Do you think that just because you live on the Earth you are separated from Me by thousands of miles? Do you not realize that your distance from Me in the spirit is far, far less that you have ever imagined? The more you develop a lifestyle of worship is the more you will realize just how close you are to Me.
