

WORDS FOR MEDITATION (21)

- 1) Colossians 2:15 Fear of witches, witchcraft, curses, and so on is an indicator of a lack of understanding of the victory Jesus won over all powers and principalities, the fact that He passed that victory to all Christians, and a Christian's position in Christ as seated with Him in the heavenly place of all authority. Since when did witches, witchcraft and curses become greater than the Name of My Son and the authority of My children?
- 2) Zechariah 8:16 & John 17:17 True love can be offensive. True love will only speak God's truth. When truth comes in contact with the infection of error, there is stinging and pain as the infection is confronted.
- 3) 1 Peter 2:24 If you don't believe God heals today, how do you know you are saved? The same power that saves is that which heals, delivers, and more. To say that God no longer heals or works miracles is to say that God no longer honors His word and is refusing portions of salvation to those who believe. Remember, born again is an experience that is a part of the sum total of salvation.
- 4) Proverbs 30:5-6 The more you compromise scripture is the more you open the door to confusion and defeat. I do not change My Word because it is the perfection you need to guide and support your life. When you alter My Word, you are whitewashing a lie and calling it truth.
- 5) Acts 28:16-19 Caesar had the opportunity to accept Jesus and change the course of human history through the influence of Rome. If the priests had accepted the words of Jesus, they would have changed the course of history for all Jews. If you accept God's Word, you can change the course of your personal history.
- 6) Colossians 1:12-13, Ephesians 2:19 & 1 Peter 2:9 Every country has some form of a constitution or written declaration of its governance. Each respective document details the essential laws and rights of that nation's citizens. As My children, you are citizens of a nation known as the Kingdom of God. My Word is the constitution of My Kingdom. It is a revelation of the Kingdom's laws and your citizen's rights. If you will study your Holy Constitution, you will discover a supernatural health care plan that covers every citizen and all pre-existing conditions. You will discover an economic plan that meets the needs of every citizen. You will find that you are a member of the Kingdom military, possessing the authority and weapons necessary to stop all enemies. In My Kingdom, there are no unrighteous judges to create laws that nullify the Holy Constitution; there is only one Supreme King in the Kingdom and His Word will never pass away.
