

BE A DOER OF WORSHIP
November 8, 2020

The season is indeed upon you to move beyond the mental ascension, the mental agreement, to saying yes, worship is a good thing, [and] to move into a place of actually doing it on purpose, every day. Whenever you face conflict, whenever you face a trial, whenever you face difficult emotions, the time is now – do it. You go to church, you hear a good message, you agree with it, you say amen, hallelujah, then you go home and you don't do it.

The season that you're entering into requires you to become doers of the Word. You must enter into worship. There is no option. You must. You long for victory in your life, but you won't fight for yourself. I've given you all that you need. Now stand up and worship, for it is your weapon of warfare and the enemy cannot withstand it. So do it.

Do you not realize that if you don't see victory in your life, you are to blame? You have failed yourself because you won't do it. Stand up! Worship! Enter into My presence! You find yourself at home, just enter in.
