

Your Breakthrough is Coming (PD220424A – April 24, 2022)
(During the Revival Now! Conference)

There are many of you who are on the verge of a major breakthrough in your life. So many of you have been struggling. It's as though you're in a bubble and you're trying to make progress, but no matter which way you turn you cannot seem to break through and go forward. But I want you to know that while you've been struggling and while you have continued to seek Me, to press into Me, you have been getting stronger and stronger and stronger.

The membrane of that bubble has not gotten weaker, but you are becoming stronger. I want you to know that if you will continue pressing into Me, you will become stronger than that membrane that's been holding you back and you are going to breakthrough. You are going to have an experience with Me that you've been longing for and it's going to happen. I did not die to give you victory that would stay wrapped up and not released. No, I died to give you the overcomer's victory in this world.

I say to you, continue to press into Me. You are getting stronger and stronger and stronger in your spirit, no matter what you feel. You have been distracted at times by the things of family, the things of finances, the things of health, the things of this world, the reports – the negative reports that inundate your mind with negativity. But I say unto you, keep casting those things down, keep pressing into Me because you are becoming stronger and stronger, and you are going to press through – break through – and you are going to see victory. You're going to go forward with Me. You will. You will.

I say to you, remember this time because once you break through, you are going to march directly into a wall – a wall that wants to hold you back. But keep pressing into Me because I have declared in My Word that the things of this world and the things of the enemy cannot stop you if you keep pressing into Me.

Just as you sang earlier that every high thing would come down [and] every stronghold would be broken, this is true for you. You keep pressing in and you will not be stopped. I will move through you, and you will see great things happen. This is My declaration to you. This is My encouragement to you. Do not let yourself be distracted. Do not stop. Keep pressing in no matter what you feel because you are on the verge of a major breakthrough, says the Lord.

Changes Are Happening Now (PD220424B - April 24, 2022)
During the Revival Now! Conference)

Do not wait for prayer lines, or even that which is of itself scriptural in the laying on of hands. Those things work as I will and as you deliberately do those things. But understand this, that in this atmosphere of worship, all sickness, disease, infirmities, and pain is subject to your praise and your worship in Me, says the Spirit of Grace. Do not wait for what you would think would be a special call. But as you're watching this service or you're sitting in this service, give yourself over to that place of believing Me that all things are possible. Allow your expectation to come to another place, and for Me to frame your world in a place of understanding that where you're going and where I'm taking My Church, that things happen, you'd call, it inadvertently. You'd call it just seemingly on accident or sovereignly. But I say you're deliberately bringing about My presence in a place where I can come all the time, on purpose, and bring forth healing and virtue to your body, says the Spirit of Grace.

Those of you who are reaching out tonight, watching, standing or sitting in this place, now is the time. Receive of My Spirit, says the Lord. Even that which is, (and I heard Him say this), even that which is of a natural healing process, or even that which is being aided with medication, which is fine, He wants to speed it up. He wants to put it into overdrive. He wants you to know that He'll come alongside of medicine, He'll come alongside of natural healing, because He wants you. He wants you to be in the best place possible to go into Revival in this outpouring.

2022 Revival Now! Conference, I'm meeting you [in] a place that you've never been before. And I'm bringing you up as I said this morning through the ministry of My Word to a higher plane, to come into fellowship with Me and to know Me beyond any place that you've ever known Me before, and to know that as a Father, it hurts Me more to see you in your suffering than it does even for you and your family. For a price has been paid. And I'm bringing you up into a place to change your expectation, that old things and things that have been around for months, and years, and even decades are being changed, says the Spirit of the Lord.

Emotional battles, whether they be the biological chemistry, or satanic origins, or just happenstances of life, in everything, I'll come. In everything, I'll come. Peace that passes understanding has been your promise beyond having the ability to understand. I'm petitioning you. I'm petitioning you as your High Priest and Lord of the Church, begin to lay down reasoning and figuring these things out, but rather to give yourself over to worship and magnify Me, that everything comes to a plane and everything is washed. Give this over to Me, says the Spirit of the Lord. Let life begin to invigorate you and bring forth that which only I through the Holy Spirit can bring forth.

God's Will for the End (PD220426A - April 26, 2022)
(During the Revival Now! Conference 2022)

I've kept you concealed up till now. And I've kept you in a place of hiding and hid away from the world, and yes, even from much of the Church at large. But I've done this as I prayed out the mysteries and brought you into the fullness of My will as a Body here, and a Body that's joined together for one purpose. I've concealed you that I might bring you out at the proper time. For the time is coming and now is when I will begin to advertise you, and bring forth that which I've so fashioned after My will for the purpose of the end.

For in the days ahead and not too far in your future, you'll find that these types of meetings will go from a place of what you've been used to, to take on more of a harvest, miracle demonstration, not only to the Church but to the world. You'll be in amazement because you'll wonder why it's so simple, and why it seemed for so long that things were shut up and shut back, and no one came. Watch, says the Spirit of the Lord, when I begin to knock on doors. Watch when I begin to go forth and advertise what I'm doing in this place and other places. I will of Myself begin to speak to hearts and take them places past even the excuses that they've made up until now. And the longings to be in these places and in this Church and others like it will become such a great desire to the circumference [of the area], not only to the neighborhood, but to places in the city. Others will move to this place and places like it.

You're meeting for a purpose. You're hid away in the womb right now. You're hid away in secret. I've covered you with My hand. It would've done you no good, no prosperity would've come out of any evangelism program. You would've been praying against what I'm praying through you in the mysteries. Because supernaturally, I'm about to bring forth as I did with My Son. In that [same way] He could not be hid, neither will this be hid, neither will your leaders and elders and pastors be hid.

For many will seek this place, and again your amazement will be, "Why hasn't it happened like this up till now?" But it was all in My purpose and in My timing. So rejoice in this hour with a great hope and expectation, seeing the vision which is to come. It is impossible, it is impossible, says the Spirit of Grace, for you to have been doing these things over these decades without Me doing what I will do in the decades ahead, says the Spirit of the Lord.

You Are Not Broken (PD220426B - April 26, 2022)

(During the Revival Now! Conference)

For those that have been fighting panic attacks, anxiety –

For many of you that have fought these kinds of things have reasoned within yourself, and the enemy has come and said you're less than. You didn't understand. And sometimes it was biological, sometimes it was a direct assault, but nevertheless because of the accuser of the brethren, you've walked in a weight. Not just the fear of those things, but a weight of less than, a feeling of less than, and not having the same place of sonship or being a daughter in the Kingdom because something was wrong with you, that you were broken in some way. But I'm here to tell as your Father and as the Spirit of Truth, you're not broken. You're mine. You're filled even as you believe with strength on the inward man, says the Spirit of Grace.

Henceforth, do not receive in yourself, even when the symptoms come, do not receive the accusation that these things are coming because something is wrong, innately wrong with you, or that part of your makeup is broken. But I say to you that strength is being measured out to you even now in this service, and in times to come, you'll find a growing strength. For this testimony is come about not just for the one that gave it, but for all those who'll reach out.

No, you're not. No, you're not. (He's speaking to someone through the camera or even in here.) No, you're not. You're not getting dementia. You're not getting Alzheimer's. You're not! That lie, those symptoms of memory and recall that are coming against you even now, stand up in faith against these things. Do not entertain them in your bed. Do not entertain them in your shower. Do not entertain them. But speak against them, speaking My Word, saying these things: "I have the mind of Christ, and I'll have the mind of Christ until I'm old and taken out of this world. I will continually remember everything, both old and both new. Old memory patterns, new memory patterns, in Jesus' name."

You Are Not Less (PD220426C - April 26, 2022)

(During the Revival Now! Conference)

Forget not the things that I have said to you from the beginning. You may not be a pastor, prophet, evangelist, apostle, or any of the fivefold, but you have a call. You have a specific call that is just as important as anyone that will stand in the pulpit. Hold to those promises. Hold to the blueprint that I have given to you, and refurbish these things and go back to them and claim them, and read them and quote them and rehearse them before My presence with worship and adoration, saying, "You're the God that cannot lie. You said these things to me twenty years ago, ten years ago.” No prophecy has mold on it, mildew on it, in my sight. It’s just as if I spoke it five minutes ago.

Your call now is to be understood. The message of longevity for your life is for the purpose of this outpouring, says the Spirit of the Lord. So go back and hold dear. Ask Me to cause you to remember if you’ve not written these things down. All of the prophecies, the things that were said both to you personally from the Spirit of God or someone that you trusted that was hearing from God, hold to the blueprint of your life which first comes by My Word and by the witness of My Spirit. But individually, I have spoken many things to all of you. These things are to be held in great regard, says the Spirit of the Lord. Lift them up. Lift them up before Me and worship Me as if they were coming to pass in the next five minutes of your life, as if they were immediately transpiring, says the Spirit of the Lord.

Bringing Forth Rivers of Living Water (PD220427 – April 27, 2022)
(During the Revival Now! Conference)

The Lord says in these services much Word is being sown into you. But I want you to know that I am in you working with this Word that’s being sown. What is being delivered unto you is there for a purpose and that is to bring forth My glory, to bring forth those rivers of living water. I am working in you with this Word that is being sown this week.

Until the Door is Closed (PD220428 – April 28, 2022)
(During the Revival Now! Conference)

The Holy Spirit says, This revival will spread across the world as the waters flooded the earth in the days of Noah. After Noah, his family, and the animals entered the ark, God himself closed the door. My end time revival will last until I close the door.

(Note: The door of the ark was closed only when God’s final judgement of the flood was released. The door to salvation will not be closed until Jesus returns as seen at the end of the book of Revelation and humanity stands before God in final judgement. Luke 13:25 When once the master of the house is risen up, and hath shut to the door, and ye begin to stand without, and to knock at the door, saying, Lord, Lord, open unto us; and he shall answer and say unto you, I know you not whence ye are)
