

You Are Not Less (PD220426C - April 26, 2022)
(During the Revival Now! Conference)

Forget not the things that I have said to you from the beginning. You may not be a pastor, prophet, evangelist, apostle, or any of the fivefold, but you have a call. You have a specific call that is just as important as anyone that will stand in the pulpit. Hold to those promises. Hold to the blueprint that I have given to you, and refurbish these things and go back to them and claim them, and read them and quote them and rehearse them before My presence with worship and adoration, saying, "You're the God that cannot lie. You said these things to me twenty years ago, ten years ago." No prophecy has mold on it, mildew on it, in my sight. It's just as if I spoke it five minutes ago.

Your call now is to be understood. The message of longevity for your life is for the purpose of this outpouring, says the Spirit of the Lord. So go back and hold dear. Ask Me to cause you to remember if you've not written these things down. All of the prophecies, the things that were said both to you personally from the Spirit of God or someone that you trusted that was hearing from God, hold to the blueprint of your life which first comes by My Word and by the witness of My Spirit. But individually, I have spoken many things to all of you. These things are to be held in great regard, says the Spirit of the Lord. Lift them up. Lift them up before Me and worship Me as if they were coming to pass in the next five minutes of your life, as if they were immediately transpiring, says the Spirit of the Lord.
