

Do You Know Who You Are? (PD220622B – June 22, 2022)

Do you know who you are? Do you really know who you are? I would ask, who is defining to you who you are? Is the world defining for you who you are? Are your friends defining you? Are you defining yourself? Do you really know who you are? Are you allowing Me to define you? Do you really know who you are? You see, if you truly know who you are, then you will speak differently about yourself. You will not allow anything or anyone to define you to you, but Me. Until you understand who you really are, you will continually live with ups and downs throughout your life. You will be like a wave that rises and falls over and over and over again. You will not truly be happy because there will be this ongoing contradiction between who you have allowed to define you and who you really are. There will not be a settledness on the inside. There will not be the kind of piece that I have promised you on the inside.

You have to come to the place of understanding who you really are before you can truly go deeper into Me. A lack of understanding concerning who you really are will impact your spiritual growth beyond what you truly understand. You cannot bring your definition of you into the depths of My presence as you have tried. You must lay down all of the self-defined perceptions, all of the world defined perceptions, and all of your relationship defined perceptions of who you are and embrace the fullness of who I say you are. This is absolutely critical to live in the fullness of My promises for you.

I say you're worthy. What do you say about yourself? I say that you are qualified to access every spiritual blessing that I have made available to you. But what do you say you're qualified to receive? You must allow yourself to be defined by Me. And when this happens, it will accelerate your spiritual growth because you will understand in greater measure your potential in Me. When you became born again, I did not produce a loser; I produced someone who has the victory of Christ dwelling inside. Allow Me to define you to you. Live daily in that understanding and understand the joy of your salvation. Know who you are in Me and live triumphantly in that victory every day of your life in every single situation. You are more than a conqueror through Me, says the Lord.
