

God's Love is Eternal (PD220731 – July 31, 2022)

Just as you have sung that forever all your days that you would love Me, I want you to know, forever all My days I will love you. And because I am eternal, with no beginning, no ending, that means I will love you forever and forever and forever without end. I will never stop loving you.

Many of you have gone through times where you have felt very unlovable because of what you've done, because of choices you've made. Though I don't approve of every choice that you've made, though I don't approve of every decision that you have made, the fact remains, I still love you and I will never stop loving you. Never. I will love you no matter what you've done.

My love is not approval of what you do, but it is a declaration of who I am to you. I love you. I will never stop. So don't ever feel as though you are unlovable. There may be people in the world who do not like you. There may be people in the world who don't love you, who even hate you, but don't ever feel as though you are not lovable by Me. I am God, I am love and I love you. So, no matter what you're going through, no matter what you're facing, My arms are open wide to you. Come to Me, experience My love and know that you are welcome in My presence. I love you and that will never change, says the Lord.
