

Are God's Plans Your Plans? (PD220907 – Sept 7, 2022)

When you come to Me and your heart is open, I can fill it with everything that I am. I can fill you up with all My grace, all My power, all My love. But so many of My people don't come to Me with hearts that are accessible to Me. They come to Me hoping that I will agree with their plans instead of them coming to Me and agreeing with My plans. But the agreement has to be with My plans and My desires. And then there has to be a willingness to follow through on seeing My plans and desires become a reality in your life. I can't do the follow through. You have to do the follow through. I can give the plan. I can provide the way. But you have to walk the path.
