

Worship Defeats Worry (PD221106 – Nov 6, 2022)

If you noticed, when you're worshipping Me, you stop worrying about life's problems. When you're worshipping Me – truly worshipping Me from your heart, when your focus is directed toward Me – if you've noticed, you stop worrying about your family. This is because when you are truly worshipping Me and focusing on Me in your worship, the peace that I can bring in every situation is at work on the inside of you.

There are many times when you have come out of a season of worshipping Me, regardless of how long that season would be – 10 minutes, 30 minutes, an hour, it doesn't matter – there have been times when you have come out of a period of worship and you have felt so good and you have felt like I truly am at work in your life. That's because I have inhabited your praise and the reality of who I am and what I can do has become more real to you.

Cast all of your care on to Me. I am your deliverance. I am your restoration. I am your answered prayers. I hear you and I move. I have never neglected you. The more you worship Me is the more you are going to experience this relief and this confidence to know I am at work. So remember this, and the next time you start to feel as though life's problems and challenges are beginning to overwhelm you, worship Me, worship Me, give Me glory and open that door of your spirit to Me. I will inhabit your praises, says the Lord.
