

Human Will vs God's Desires (PD230604 – June 4, 2023)

The Spirit of God is saying, many people wonder what is happening in the world and they question why I am not doing anything. Many people have blamed Me for tragedies, for natural disasters, for sickness, injury and even death. But I want you to know, it is not My fault. I am not the way into problems; I am the way out.

I gave humanity free will because I want people to love Me because they want to, not because they're forced to. I want people to serve Me because they want to, not because they're forced to. I want people to desire fellowship with Me and to have that fellowship because they want to, not because they're forced to.

When I gave humanity free will, I already knew what would happen, and you're seeing the results of free will. People choose to do what they want. Even if they're warned ahead of time that it's wrong, and that I will judge, they still do it. It's because they have free will. You're seeing the results of these free will choices all over the world. I am not making people do bad things. I'm not making people do evil things. I am not standing by and doing nothing. My arms are constantly outstretched willing to receive anyone who wants fellowship with Me.

I am the answer, the way out of problems. I can show you decisions that you should make. I can give you wisdom that will see you through life. But too many people choose to reject what I offer and continue on a path that they create for themselves. I am God and I've said in My Word that I do not change. So therefore, if you want security in your life, you have to trust Me, you have to seek Me, and I will give it to you. I am not the one to blame. Humanity is to blame.

Some people would say no, the devil is to blame. But I would remind you that since you have free will, you can choose to follow him or Me. Consider, what if everyone on earth chose to follow Me instead of their own desires or the influence of Satan? Don't you think this world would be a far better place? People make the decisions to follow after Me, to follow after their own desires, or to follow after the influences of Satan. But I am the answer. I am a God of love. I do not tolerate sin, but I do forgive when you ask.

Please keep these things in mind because in My Word I have prophesied the conditions in the world are going to get worse and it all goes back to what people have chosen. If you will trust Me, I will see you through everything that happens in this world. I will be with you, and if you would trust Me, and put your faith in My Son Jesus, the salvation you receive will see you through into eternity with Me.

So again, please do not blame Me for all the problems in the world. The wars, the sickness, the disease, the natural disasters – please don't blame Me. But if you'll seek Me, I will reveal Myself to you in ways you've never known. I will be your comfort, I will be your strength, and you will know my joy. So, trust Me in these things, know that I cannot lie, and that I am offering all of Myself to you if you, by your will, will choose to receive Me.
