

A Wave of Glory is Coming (PD240526 – May 26, 2024)

I say unto you, there is a wave of My glory that is getting ready to be released in this earth. It is being released upon the foundation of previous releases of My glory and My presence. It is being released because of the remnant that's worshipping Me and praising Me and seeking Me and pressing into Me. I am able to work in them, on them and through them and so another wave of My glory is getting ready to be released.

Do not look for it in the natural because it is taking place in the realm of the spirit, but you will be able to see the results in the natural. And don't think in terms of what you've experienced in the past. Do not pre-define what the fruit will be of this move, of this wave. For I say unto you, it is going to impact not just My Church, but various segments of society. It not only is going to bring about peace and salvation and restoration to many, but it is also going to create great upheaval, because this wave is going to come in direct contact with evil that has been so dominant for so long.

Do not be surprised with what you are about to see because I am God Almighty, and I will not be stopped, and I am moving, and I have been watching the evil in this nation, and in this world. It has not escaped My vision and I want you to know that there is a mixture of great anger and great love that is being released from Me. People are not going to escape the judgment that is being released. So, do not let your heart be troubled.

Know this, that I am watching over you, and as you continue to press into Me, you will dwell under the shadow of the wings of My glory, and I will be there for you every step of the way. So, again know that a wave of My glory is getting ready to be released. Rejoice now before it is released, and then rejoice when it is being released and rejoice as it passes over you and through you, for you are going to experience My presence in a much deeper way. So be prepared, the wave is coming.
