

No Idols (PD240724 – July 24, 2024)

I hear the Lord saying tonight, I will have no idols before Me. I will have no idols before Me. I will have no idols before Me. No other gods before Me. Nothing before Me. Nothing before Me. No idols. No idols. No idols. Destroy those idols. Lay down those idols. I will have no other idols before Me. No other idols. Yes, I am a consuming fire. And yes, I am holy. But these are not just words to Me. It's who I am, says the Lord.

Clean out your house in a new way. As I come to purge, don't deny Me access. For there is a sweeping that's coming to your life, and you thought, oh, I have given up too much already. For those who are hungry and those who are pressing in, there is a new level, a new sweeping. So lay your heart open bear to Me. Lay every room open, every door open. Give me access, says the Lord. New levels approaching, only if you want it. Do not miss what I am doing. Do not miss it. It's your choice, but don't miss it.
