

God's Never-Ending Love (PD250126 – Jan 26, 2025)

You declare that you love Me, and I hear you when you say that. Sometimes you feel as though when you say it, it's empty, hollow, and doesn't really mean anything. You're trying so hard to mean it when you say it. But I want you to know that the expression of love for Me that comes from your heart is far more critical to Me than the emphasis in your voice. It's your emotions that are trying so hard to convey what's in your heart. But when you tell Me that you love Me, I listen to your heart more than your voice.

I know you love Me. I know you're trying to express that love for Me to Me and I know that you're trying so hard to love Me more and more and more. I understand that and I encourage you to continue pressing into Me because as you do, you're going to understand how to love Me more, that's because your love for Me comes forth out of your spirit, not your emotions. I love you as well. If you could hear My heart, you would understand a love that is deeper than anything any human has ever known other than My Son Jesus when He was there on the Earth.

If you continue pressing into Me, you will begin to understand My love for you more than ever before. When you do that, it's going to fill you with a confidence to serve me without fear of what man can do to you and you will understand, more clearly than ever, that you can do all things through Christ who strengthens you. I know you love Me, and I encourage you continue to speak your love, continue to sing your love, continue to declare your love because it reinforces to you that yes, you do love Me.

And know this: I have loved you before you were born because I knew you were going to be born. I will never stop loving you. I do not love you more now than I did when you were first born. And I do not love you any less now than I will love you a thousand years from now. You see, My love is already perfected because it comes forth from Me. Know that you can trust Me. I love you and I will never turn My back on you. I love you with a never-ending love and I want you to experience that love in greater measure. So, continue pressing into Me and know My love for you, says the Lord.
