

God is Giving Answers (PD250309 – March 9, 2025)

Many of My children are seeking answers from Me, answers about many different areas in their life. What's so sad is that through the teaching that has come through in this church from those who have stood behind the pulpit, answers have been delivered to you over the years. For some of you, you have missed the fact that the answers you're seeking have been provided. Sometimes you dismiss what you're hearing in a sermon as simply being a part of the sermon, not a specific answer to you.

I say to you from this day forward, pay very close attention to what you hear, especially in light of whatever you're facing, for I give you answers to your questions. I tell you how to find the answers to your questions. I do not ignore you. I do provide for you what you need. And for My children, the greatest need is not natural provision, but it's provision to My Word, to what I say to you, to the direction I'm leading you; because if I simply provide for you in the natural, that does not produce any type of spiritual development in you. Spiritual development is far more critical than the natural provision.

So again, I say unto you, pay very close attention to what you hear, what you're taught, the edification that comes forth, and don't leave simply thinking, "Another great sermon," or, "Another so-so sermon." Pay attention and decide if what you're hearing is an answer to what you're asking. I want you to walk in the fullness of My truth and I want you to walk in the fullness of all I have for you. I do not deliver unto you answers that are cryptic, difficult to understand and confusing. I will speak to you clearly, and I will give you answers.

But know this, most of My children have a preconceived idea about the answer they want to receive, and if that's what you're looking for you'll not always receive it. I will give you the answer you need, and sometimes it may not be exactly what you want to hear. But I will tell you what you need to hear. So direct your attention during all of these services, no matter who is leading worship, no matter who is teaching, pay attention because I will provide answers to the questions you ask, says the Lord.
