

You Are Complete in Christ (PD250608 – June 8, 2025)

In My Word I have said to look unto Jesus the Author and the Finisher of your faith. I've also said that you are complete in Him. You are complete, you are complete in Him. Many in My Church seem to think that I've held back on them in many areas of their lives. But I have not held back. The problem lies in your lack of understanding concerning your completeness in Christ. You have access to everything. Everything. But it's this lack of understanding that has held you back.

It's very important for you to realize that you have this treasure in your earthen vessel. It lies within. Worship is one way to begin excavating and reaching down into the depths of your spirit to bring forth that which is within you. For many of My children, they struggle far more than what they should and again this goes to a lack of understanding of their completeness in Christ.

I've promised in My Word that I would never leave you and I would never forsake you. This means everything you need is accessible to you. So I ask you, what do you see that you need? What do you perceive are the struggles in your life? I am there for you. I am there for you.

It's one thing for a voice to worship Me, but it's quite something else for a heart to open up and worship Me. Many in My Church, they're worshiping with their voice, but they are not worshiping with their heart. But when you put the two together, you will begin to walk at a greater level of understanding of everything that I've given you.

Do not stop pressing in. The manifestation of answers is coming, but you must continue pressing in. Trust Me. Trust Me like you have never trusted Me. Your answers do not lie in your natural circumstances, but they lie in you in that completeness that you have in Christ. So don't give up and don't ever feel all is lost, because you are complete in Christ. So look unto Him. He is the Author and the Finisher of your faith and, once more, you are complete in Him.
