

When You Worship Me (PD250824 – Aug 24, 2025)

The Lord says, I have said in My Word that I inhabit your praises, and I inhabit your praises, and I have done so tonight. You have brought pleasure to My heart and because of your praises, healing balm has been flowing tonight, not only for your bodies but for your situations that you have found yourself in, situations that are broken, situations that need mending; My healing balm has flowed in those situations.

I love spending time with My children. I love spending time with My children. And I love it even more when My children love spending time with Me. We have a bond when we do that. We have an intimacy when we do that. And it's something, something that cannot be taken away from you.

I inhabit your praises, not just here but wherever you are when you decide to praise Me. When you open your mouth to praise Me, I get a running start to join you and to be where you are, to be where you are. Never hesitate to praise Me, children. Never hesitate, no matter where you are, no matter what the situation, have a heart that is full of praise.

The enemy doesn't like it when you praise. He does not like it. But I love it. I love it. I inhabit your praises. I always will inhabit your praises. You never have to doubt that. You never have to doubt that.
