

THE LORD IS NEAR PD210606

June 6, 2021

The Lord says, I am here. I am here. I am pouring out My love right now on each of you. I am mending what needs to be mended; I am healing what needs to be healed. I am here. I am here. I long for times like these with you, not only in this place, but in your homes as well. I am here. I am here. And I can be at your homes as well. All I need from you is to welcome Me like you have welcomed Me here tonight. I am here. I am here.

So take advantage of these times. Take advantage of these times. Because it is in these times healing flows. It is in these times I am able to show you much that I am unable to show you in any other way. I am here. I am here. Seek My presence. Seek My presence. I want to be with you more than just on occasions like tonight. I want to be with you every waking moment of your life. I am here. I am here. That's a phrase you can hear throughout the day. I am here. I am here. And know I am there with you.
