The greatest storms you will ever face, the most powerful winds and waves you'll ever face, are within. For you see, if you conquer the inner turmoil then the outer turmoil will not seem as bad. But you must be the one to take authority over the upheaval in your emotions, regardless of what is happening around you.

I said that I would leave you My peace, that I would give it to you. That peace is within you. It is a part of your new nature, that born again spirit. It cannot be separated from the born again spirit. Therefore, if you are born again, you not only have My life and My nature, but you also have My peace. You must draw that peace up from within.

If you seek Me, My presence will minister to you. But the presence of peace that I bring will begin to minister to you according to the peace that is within you. I say unto you, you have supernatural peace within. This is one reason why that My Word declares it to be a peace that passes all understanding because it cannot be explained in human terms.

The power of My peace within you is greater than all of the inner turmoil you will ever face. So instead of focusing on the problems that appear to be overwhelming you, I say focus on My peace within and let it overwhelm those emotions. I have given to you My perfect peace and I say to you, use it as a weapon against inner turmoil. You can live in this place of peace because you are born of My Spirit, says the Lord.
